Mr. Edwin A. Martinson

Superintendent of Schools

1953-1964

For twelve years a man familiar to all the students and townspeople has provided a leadership in Marshfield schools - Mr. Edwin A. Martinson. It takes a wise man to steer a course that includes the best of the two educational worlds: excellence and harmony. This Mr. Martinson has done with great success. During his tenure, he brought excellence in education to Marshfield. It was his sincere effort that he helped make the Marshfield schools a top educational system in Massachusetts.

From the time we, the Class of 1965, began our first attempts at education in first grade, Mr. Martinson was hard at work to give us the best there was to to offer. His work followed us through elementary, junior high, and high school. And after twelve years he is leaving us with memories of all he has done. And for this, in deepest appreciation for his service to us and our town, we thank him!

Dedication

"Histories make men wise; . . .

the mathematics, subtile."

- Francis Bacon

Mr. Malcolm L. Pratt

Through their teaching, our instructors have given us wisdom and perception. Through themselves, they have instilled in us inspiration, character, and enthusiasm; these are the materials with which we must build our future.

We, the class of 1965, gratefully dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Malcolm L. Pratt and to Mr. John N. Erickson, Jr. in appreciation of their exemplary service to the youth of Marshfield.

Mr. John N. Erickson, Jr.

Administration

Dr. Greene and the School Committee: Mr. Richard Ketchum, Mrs. Elizabeth Hatch, Dr. Lawrence Greene, Mr. David Ellis, Mr. Vincent Cohee, Mr. Frank Burridge.

This year has marked an important change in the administration of the Marshfield school system; Mr. Edwin Martinson, our Superintendent of Schools from 1953 to 1964, retired. Dr. Lawrence Greene, his successor, became our new Superintendent in December.

Although Dr. Greene will initiate new programs and policies, his goal will remain the same: to maintain the excellence of Marshfield's educational system.

The School Committee has been equally responsible with the Superintendents for the high quality of Marshfield's schools. Their foresight has given us our modern High School, the new Junior High, the Eames Way School, and the planned Daniel Webster School.

The administration of the High School itself has also played a key role in our education. Mr. James Romeo, Principal, and Mr. Richard Burgess, Vice Principal, work together to maintain and improve the standards and spirit of Marshfield High School.

The Class of 1965 wishes to express its gratitude to Mr. Martinson, Dr. Greene, the School Committee, Mr. Romeo, and Mr. Burgess. Through our years of Marshfield schooling, they have helped to give us lasting materials with which to build our future.

Dr. Lawrence Greene,
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. James P. Romeo, Principal

Mr. Richard Burgess, Vice Principal

After twelve years of school, the senior class is finally ready to graduate. Looking back on these years, seniors remember the countless activities, experiences, and achievements that made education an adventure. At the same time, they look forward to graduation eagerly; to them, it represents a gateway opening outward to the greatest adventure, life.

Letter of Commendation Winners

Thomas Lewis
Finalist

Through their high scores on last spring's National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, two Marshfield students, Jean Merrill and Peter Cecil, received letters of commendation. These letters congratulated them on test results that placed them in the top two percent of American high school students. In addition, the National Merit Scholarship Corporation sent their names to colleges all over the country.

Another Marshfield student, Thomas Lewis, won Semi-Finalist standing with Qualifying Test scores in the top one percent. As a Semi-Finalist, Tom is eligible for a National Merit Scholarship, which range from $200 to $1500.

The National Merit Scholarship program each year gives out several hundred scholarships to deserving students throughout the country; it bases its selections on a combination of test scores, grades, class rank, and extracurricular activities.

Junior Class Officers: G. Gilbert, M. Patch, H. Stephens, D. Robicheau, P. Cappello, class advisor Mr. Paul Gray, R. White, L. Cupples, K. Pearle, D. Emery.

The Junior Class

We have finally made it to upperclassmanship and are now looking forward to our senior year at MHS. With much-needed aid from our advisor, Mr. Gray, we successfully presented two one-act plays and a mixer with Sacred Heart.

Since our confusing freshman year, we have grown in number and experience. Although we will miss the Class of 1965, we are eager to take its place. As seniors we will try to maintain the standards and spirit of MHS.

After cluttering the corridors of MHS with myriads of posters proclaiming the wonders of our forthcoming play, the Juniors presented two dramas designed to enthrall an audience and inspire a player to heights of enactment. Directed by Mr. Paul Gray with the assistance of Mr. Richard Benoit, the plays went forward despite tons of makeup weighing down the brows of our heroes and heroines, causing some to forget a few lines. But all's well that ends well, as the cast says. The plays were fun, and finally did end well.

Freshmen

Lynda Bennett, Susan Gavone, Mary Jane Anderson, Steve Marshall, Mr. Cesarini, Merrill Garside, Andres Abbondanza, Deborah Ames, Deborah Weston.

Our first year at M.H.S. has provided us with many memories and experiences. When we entered in September, we felt we were taking an important step in our lives. While adjusting to this new experience, we tried to fit ourselves in with the standards of our teachers and upperclassmen.

Now our freshman year is ended. We will soon be sophomores with a feeling of importance and familiarity. And as the years go by, we hope to measure up to the achievements of the preceding years.

We, the Class of 1968, wish the best of luck to the Class of 1965!

Sophomores

Finally we made it! We are sophomores! Our class has showed its strength in sports by supplying the varsity teams with many players. We have a growing treasury due to our money-making activities. We were at every home football and basketball game selling candy. We gave the school a fun-filled evening with our dance, the "Turkey Kick." We showed our dramatic abilities in our sophomore prize speaking contest and our sophomore class play.

Our sophomore year has added to our growing knowledge and experiences. It has helped prepare us for the long road ahead. We, the Class of 1967, are looking forward to our last two years of high school, and we hope they will be successful and happy!

Band

This year, Mr. Cowgill has resumed his leadership of the band and Glee Clubs after a year's sabbatical in Germany. Mr. Leone, the band director, has lent zest and school spirit to the football games and assemblies at which the band plays lively popular tunes as well as traditional marches.

In addition to the assemblies, the band presents Christmas, spring, and exchange concerts with the Marshalairs each year. These give the people of the town, as well as the students, an opportunity to enjoy the band's music.

An indication of the band's high caliber is the large number of its members who participate in the District, All-State, and New England Music Festivals. This year, John Struble, Mary Ann Bennet, Fifi Heron, Eileen Reuell, Clifden, Banner, Jeffrey Hodgkins, Patricia Heil, John Merrill, Ted Gentry, and Stephen Bissell played at the Festivals.

The Tide

For the Class of 1965, this year has signalled the change from dependence to independence, from high school to college or work. Although no shorter than any other year on the calendar, it seemed to pass more quickly through a rapid succession of dances, plays, classes, and athletic events. To the seniors, this TIDE represents the collected memories and experiences of the last and best of our high school years.

For the underclassmen, this book is also a record of 1965. More important, it preserves the achievements of the Class of 1965 and challenges the underclassmen to do as well.

Sincerely,

Tom Lewis

The members take the pledge.

At the Honor Society Induction, April 1964, three juniors became members: Jean Merrill, Joyce Wright, and Tom Lewis. We elected Joyce president, Tom vice-president and student council delegate, and Jean Secretary-Treasurer.

We put our time and energy into our fall project, the Bruce Bradley Hop. For the first time at M.H.S., a disc jockey, the one and only Juicy Brucy, emceed a dance. We enjoyed a pizza-eating contest, dancing for prizes, talking to Bruce, or collecting the records that he passed out. It was a night for fun, excitement, and success.

Although there were only three of us, we did our best to carry on the duties of the Society.

Receptionists

M.H.S. receptionists greet visitors, collect attendance slips, assist in the office, and run errands for teachers and office secretaries. Their contributions of time and energy add to the efficiency of the school.

Also greeting all those who enter the school is the Ram, symbolic of the spirit and tradition of the system. This bronze replica was the gift of the class of 1963; it has become the joy of not only the school population but the townspeople.

The training which the receptionists receive proves invaluable in their futures, since many of the girls are members of the business department classes. Poise, courtesy, voice modulation, and public relations on their part help them to gain confidence in themselves.

The Library Club

These students give up their study halls to help Miss Andrews. In doing so they learn much about the library's operation and contribute to its efficiency.

The Paperback Book Fair is the biggest event of their year. Last year, Miss Andrews introduced the cookout for the Library Staff. It is hoped that this will become an annual tradition.

The twenty-one members are students interested in audio-visual equipment. Through their participation in the club, they learn to operate these machines while serving the school.

The Student Council

A vital organ in Marshfield High School is our student council, which acts as a link between faculty and students. It provides a means through which we voice and settle our differences and institute the changes necessary in a growing school. It provides a relaxed and congenial atmosphere for studies and extra-curricular activities.

We are proud to welcome Mr. John Braithwaite, our new faculty adviser. This year the council's byword is action: annual conventions; the re-adoption of Byung Mo Kim, our Korean orphan; an exchange student; and a talent show, something never before done in Marshfield.

Rams Turn Tigers in 2nd Half Surge

Marshfield Set for Lakers

Coach of the week is Jim Anderson of Marshfield. When the season began some were claiming that the Rams would be lucky to win a game.

After defeating West Bridgewater, 14-8, Saturday, however, the Rams were 4-0 and sharing the May-Shore League lead with Hull with a 3-0 record. The Rams are the only undefeated team in the May-Shore League, Hull lost a non-league game.

Anderson has done it with a young, inexperienced team and a line which averages only 150 pounds.

Mrs. Longhi began her second year as coach in Marshfield and was ably assisted by Mrs. Louise Staples and co-captains Wendy Barbeau and Phyllis Pineo. Although the team had a losing season with a 2-3-5 record, the girls remained spirited throughout each game, and they look forward to a winning season next year. With a young team, fully experienced, graduating seniors anticipate a very successful 1965 season. Everyone would like to see the championship back at Marshfield.

Basketball

This year, twenty-nine boys played varsity or junior varsity basketball. Winning all of its first five games, the varsity was especially successful. Although the team lacked height, ball-handling and shooting ability made up for it. High scorer was center Carleton Chandler; other senior starters were Dick Nicholson, Joc Tobin, and Bill Sullivan. Underclassmen Pete Driscoll, Bob Chandler, Ron White, and Leigh MacKay also helped to make this a successful season. Mr. John Erickson coached the varsity, while Mr. Warren Searfoss was J.V. coach.

In spite of high hopes, a great deal of team spirit, and tremendous drive on the part of our coaches as well as each member of the team we were unable to outscore many of our opponents. However, we did leave the season with a good sense of basic skills and team play for use in future seasons.

Softball 1964

Under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Longhi, the girls' softball team compiled a successful six-six record. Unlike the scores of the other sports, the games were often very close. Marshfield and Hull, evenly matched, played one of the best games of the season; Marshfield finally won by a single point.

The game with East Bridgewater was another thrilling contest. This time, Marshfield lost, twenty eight to ten.

The co-captains were Jackye Swinhart and Pat Murray; Fifi Heron's playing also helped to spark the team. Throughout the season, the softball team kept up the Marshfield spirit.

Baseball 1964

Marshfield's 1964 baseball team was very successful, winning eleven games and losing two. Donald Henderson and Carlton Chandler were the star pitchers, while Peter Driscoll was catcher.

The closest and most exciting game of an exciting season was against Holbrook. Although they held Marshfield to only one run, we managed to shut them out.

Marshfield also played in the Baseball Tourneys. The team won its first game against Harwich ten to four. Unfortunately, we lost to our old friend Holbrook two to five.

Angier, R. Pineo, A. Kindamo, J. O'Neil, S. Eisenhut, R. Hodgkins, B. Maloney.

In 1964, the track team had a fairly successful season, with six wins and four losses. Twenty-five squad members won letters or certificates. What they lacked in high scores, they made up in effort and enthusiasm. Ed Ryan, only a freshman, was especially remarkable for his long-distance running. Mr. Pratt and Mr. Marshall coached.

Boosters' Club Banquet

Twice each year, the Boosters' Club gives a banquet to honor Marshfield's athletes and coaches. In addition to a roast beef dinner, the players receive awards and jackets.

The Club holds the fall banquet to honor the football, field hockey, cross-country, and cheerleading squads. The basketball, baseball, softball, and track teams receive their awards and jackets at the spring banquet.

The Boosters' Club spurs the effort and spirit of players and coaches by demonstrating the community's support of Marshfield athletics.

Enjoying the fall banquet: J. Liddell, D. Nicholson, S. Eisenhut, K. Rand, J. Tobin.

Honored at the banquet: Football coach James Anderson; football co-captains D. Nicholson, J. Tobin, J. Liddell; R. Marshall, winner of most outstanding player award.

Custodial Staff: Alvin Marks, Robert Joyce, Thomas A. Tradd, Head Custodian; Frank Doherty. Culinary Staff: Anne Reynolds, Kay Cupples, Arlene Garside, Ruby Jackson, Mary Ellen McKenna, Ella Ford, not present.

The cleanliness of grounds, buildings, and kitchen facilities testifies to the pride which both our custodial and culinary staffs take in their duties. We appreciate their dedication which enables us to study and eat in a wholesome atmosphere. Their contributions on our behalf greatly contribute to the high reputation our school holds in southeastern Massachusetts. We thank them for helping us to make our high school years happy and satisfying. Primary mechanisms in the machinery of Marshfield High School, these men and women serve us in the kitchen, corridors, grounds -- in every area of our school lives. We will always look to M.H.S. with pride and remember it as a clean, neat home which sheltered four years of our lives.

Thank you, servers of education.

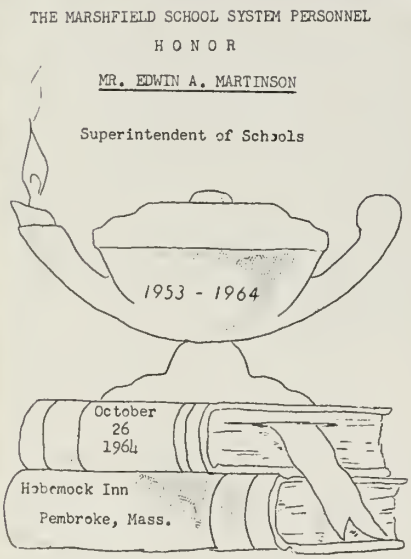
Presentation of the Gift to Mr. Martinson.
Mr. Jack Tobin, Mr. James Rome, Mr. Edwin A. Martinson



Nearly two hundred people came to honor Mr. Edwin Martinson. The affair sponsored by the Marshfield Teachers' Club permitted reservations to be made by only school staff and personnel, otherwise it would have been impossible to accommodate the numbers who wished to attend. Sensitively aware of the teacher was this educator who worked hard and faithfully to bring the best of education to the children of the town.

Welcome to Dr. Greene

Marshfield students, teachers, and parents welcomed Dr. Lawrence Greene, our new Superintendent of Schools, at a tea in December, 1964. Dr. and Mrs. Greene, their children, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo, Mr. and Mrs. Ketchum, and Mr. and Mrs. Burgess formed a receiving line to greet the guests as they arrived. A large number of town residents came, showing their interest in the new Superintendent. A committee of Marshfield teachers planned the welcome, while a group of students helped them in carrying it out.
